Food bank holding fundraiser

Fort Myers Casino Night, a fun gaming event to raise critical funds for the Harry Chapin Food Bank, will take place Aug. 31 at 7 p.m., at the Crowne Plaza at the Bell Tower Shops, near the corner of U.S. 41 and College Parkway in Fort Myers.

Fort Myers Casino Night will entertain guests with a variety of games, including craps, roulette, black jack, and Texas Holdem. Among the prizes: a trip for two to Key West, a weekend on Sanibel Island, dinners at local restaurants, golf outings, and more. Cocktails, hors d'oeuvres, and dinner will also be part of the evening.

Proceeds from Fort Myers Casino Night will benefit the Harry Chapin Food Bank, a local organization dedicated to providing food to needy families, as well as the Florida Prostart Educational Program.

Restaurant chain donates to food bank

On Tuesday, Aug. 21, the locally owned Prawnbroker Restaurant group is partnering with the Harry Chapin Food bank for "Dine Out and Help Out".

Patrons are invited to dine at any of the four SWFL restaurants which include, The Prawnbroker Restaurant & Fish Market, the University Grill, and Sanibel Island restaurants, Matzaluna's Italian Kitchen and the Timbers Restaurant and Fish Market. The restaurant group will donate 10 percent of the night's proceeds to the Food Bank. For patrons that bring in 4 to 6 cans of food, the restaurant group will give them a coupon good for a discount on a future visit at any of the restaurants.

Nearly 130 partner agencies receive food from the Harry Chapin Food Bank; including church pantries, senior programs in community centers, soup Kitchens, abuse shelters, and homes for children. Food Banking is by far the most efficient system to assure a fair and equitable distribution of food destined for the needy.

Visit www.prawnbroker.com for restaurant info. or e-mail Mark Blust at mblust@prawnbroker.com for event information. You may also visit www.harrychapinfoodbank.org, or call 334-7007 for more information on donating and/or volunteering. ■
