different economy now.”

Donations may also be claimed as tax exemptions, he said.

Some of the largest donations thus far include $5,000 from the Guy M. Strayhorn Charitable Trust. Strayhorn died in 1981 and is known for his contribution to public service. The check was presented by his grandson, attorney Bruce Strayhorn.

“It’s a great cause, and my grandfather had a long history with the city of Fort Myers and its law enforcement,” Strayhorn said. “I couldn’t think of a more fitting tribute to address all his interests at the time than the Fallen Officer Memorial.”

Also, The Defenders Motorcycle Club,

a fraternal club for active and retired law enforcement, emergency services, military and public safety professionals, presented Fort Myers Police Chief Hilton Daniels with a check for $2,500 in May.

So far, donations total $27,619.

Four officers have died on duty, while serving in the city of Fort Myers.

Lieutenant Matthew G. Hisler died on Jan. 3, 1930 from gunfire.

Sergeant Logan L. Scott died on April 3, 1981 in a vehicle accident.

Detective Mark Alan Bolhouse died on Jan. 19, 1988 from an aneurysm.

Officer Daniel Matthew Starks died on Oct. 25, 2003 in a vehicle pursuit.

Contributions may be sent by check, made out to “The FMPD Fallen Officer Memorial Fund” at Edison National Bank, 2105 First Street, Fort Myers, FL 33901, or call 332-6286.

The FMPD also welcomes donations of materials and licensed services that will lower the cost of the project. ■
