

ON THE MOVE

Medicine

Croley

Dr. James Croley of the Cataract and Refractive Institute of Florida was honored by the Florida Society of Ophthalmology with the John R. Brayton, Jr. M.D. Leadership Award in recognition of his outstanding leadership and dedication to preserving the profession of ophthalmology. Dr. Croley opened Cataract and Refractive Institute of Florida nearly 30 years ago.

Einbinder

Dr. Lynne Einbinder has joined the staff of Florida Heart Associates. She received her medical degree from the Johns Hopkins School of Medicine in 1997, and has been elected to membership in the Alpha Omega Alpha and Phi Beta Kappa honor societies. Dr. Einbinder performed her internship at Georgetown University Medical Center. She completed her fellowship in cardiovascular disease at the University of Maryland Medical Center in 2004. She is a Fellow of the American College of Cardiology and is certified by the American Board of Internal Medicine, with a subspecialty certification in cardiovascular diseases.

Media

Eberle

Terry Eberle, most recently executive editor at FLORIDA TODAY, has been named the new executive editor of The News-Press. He replaces Kate Marymont, who left to be the vice president of content for Gannett's Community Publishing Division. Eberle was the editor of The News-Press from 1995-2001, when he left to become the editor of The Indianapolis Star. He has been serving as the executive editor at FLORIDA TODAY since 2003. Both newspapers are owned by Gannett.

Non-Profits

Planned Giving Council of Lee County, Inc. has named its officers and board members for 2008-09. Officers are President, Dr. Julia East, Southwest Florida Community Foundation; Vice President, Programs: Peter C. Lefferts, Florida Gulf Coast University; Vice President, Nonprofit Membership: Mary Moore, Habitat for Humanity of Lee County; Vice President, Aligned Services Membership: Todd Adams, Mills-Price and Associates, Inc.; Treasurer: Donald L. Haisman, Haisman Wealth Management, Inc.; and Secretary: Beth Sanger, Cape Coral Community Foundation. Board members are: Tom Brown, United Way of Lee County; Carl P. Grissom, Northwestern Mutual Financial Network; Arlene Knox, Southwest Florida Community Foundation; Mike Sullivan, ECHO; Todd Cordisco, Lee Mental Health; and Diane Connell, Children's Advocacy Center. Established in 1994, The Planned Giving Council of Lee County provides educational programs, technical support, and guidance to professionals involved in all aspects of charitable planned giving.

Elkins

The Children's Museum of Naples announced that Shirlene Elkins, Edward J. Jones and Linda Malone recently joined the C'mon board of directors which has grown to 14 members. Elkins founded Children's Charities, which sends local high school seniors to college, based totally on their need rather than grades. Currently there are six children in the program that are attending a Florida college or university. Jones, retired managing director and chief information officer for Deutsche Bank's global technologies and operations in Canada, U.S. and Latin America, brings 20-plus years of global banking, financial and information technology experience.

Jones

Malone

Malone also serves on the board of directors of Boys & Girls Club of Collier County, David Lawrence Foundation and The Immokalee Foundation. Additional members of the C'mon board of directors are: Lou P. Astorino, Kim Barnett-Buckheit, Lisa Barnett, Pam Becker, John Fumagalli, Allyson Loos, Simone Lutgert, Mayela Rosales, Nancy Ross and Mary Smallwood.

Mary Moore has been newly named director of donor relations at ECHO. Moore has been fundraising in Southwest Florida since 2002. She has previously worked with Habitat for Humanity of Lee County and spent four years at Shellpoint in its foundation and sales and marketing office. She is on the board for the Planned Giving Council of Lee County and has a Registered Paraplanner designation. ECHO (Educational Concerns for Hunger Organization) provides sustainable options to world hunger through agricultural training, innovative ideas, and networking.

Dawson

The Early Learning Coalition of Southwest Florida announced the addition of a Donice Dawson (American Momentum Bank) as a new board member. The Early Learning Coalition of Southwest Florida is governed by a 25-member volunteer board of community leaders, employees of private businesses and parents. Charged with management and oversight of the School Readiness and Voluntary Prekindergarten programs in Collier, Hendry, Glades and Lee Counties, the Early Learning Coalition in partnership with Community Coordinated Care for Children served over 10,000 children this year

Construction

Humpel

Robert Humpel, LEED AP, has been promoted to vice president of Southwest Florida, by Mathews Construction. Humpel joined Mathews Construction Company in 2004, as the company's Southwest Regional Director, based in the Punta Gorda office.

Banking

Bell III

Commerce Bank of Southwest Florida, a locally owned and operated community bank, announced the election of Edward Bell III to the bank's Board of Directors. Bell is a Certified Financial Planner professional and principal of Cornerstone Financial Planning, Inc., a financial planning firm located in Fort Myers. A resident of Fort Myers, Bell co-founded Cornerstone Financial Planning with his father Edward Bell, Jr. in 2004. Before that, he was a capital markets officer with First Union National Bank (now known as Wachovia) in Charlotte, North Carolina, where he worked on the Interest Rate Swaps and Credit Derivatives desks.

Colonial Bank has promoted Knox McMasters to senior vice president, business banking manager, according to Harlan

McMasters

C. Parrish, president and CEO of Colonial Bank's Florida West Coast region. McMasters oversees the business development and lending activities of six business banking officers between Naples and Sarasota. He has more than 30 years of experience in the banking industry. He also is a board member and treasurer of the Bonita Springs Area Housing Development Corporation, a member of the Rotary Club of Fort Myers-South and a United Way volunteer.

Architecture

Daniel A. Summers, AIA, a principal with BSSW Architects, Inc. has been awarded the LEED AP, a professional accreditation conferred by the Green Building Certification Institute. LEED Professional Accreditation distinguishes building professionals with the knowledge and skills to successfully steward the LEED certification process. Summers joins an elite group as one of only 12 architects in the Southwest Florida area listed in the GBCI's professional directory. Summers heads up the Naples office of BSSW Architects. The firm has been providing architecture and planning services to the area for over 25 years.

Legal

Gravina

Peter Gravina, a partner in Pavese Law Firm, has been named as one of the top lawyers in the state of Florida by Florida Trend magazine's "Florida Legal Elite." The attorneys making the annual list, compiled by a survey of active Florida Bar members, represent just 1.9 percent of the 61,500 attorneys who practice in Florida. Since 1989, Gravina has served on the board of directors of Attorney's Title Insurance Fund Inc., serving as its chairman in 1998. He is a member of the American Bar Association and past president of the Lee County Bar Association.

Networking

Cipri

Anton Cipri and Robert Muller, both veteran professionals and business networkers, have launched The GoTo Network, which is simultaneously opening chapters in Southwest Florida, SEE ON THE MOVE, B6 ▶

Quality • Experience • Integrity

CC TURNER

Developers & Contractors of Premier Properties

CONSTRUCTION MANAGERS
GENERAL CONTRACTORS

239-432-2860 • 6540 Corporate Park Circle, Fort Myers, FL 33966 • CGC1509627