

ON THE MOVE

Construction

Wallace

Jerry Wallace, president of J.L. Wallace, Inc. and Royal Corinthian Homes, has earned the distinction of Accredited Professional in Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design from the U.S. Green Building Council. Wallace is the second LEED Accredited Professional with J.L. Wallace. Wallace is working diligently to implement eco-friendly strategies for both companies. These strategies, many of which have little or no effect on construction costs, include water efficient landscaping, innovative wastewater technologies, optimizing energy performance, construction waste management, and using recycled or rapidly renewable materials.

ship Institute Program sponsored by The Greater Naples Chamber of Commerce.

Golf

John Oyler has been promoted to director of golf for Bonita Bay Club in Bonita Springs. In his new position, he oversees golf operations for the club's five courses and 140,000 rounds of golf each year. Oyler joined Bonita Bay Club in 1991 and later served as golf professional at Wetherington Golf & Country Club in Cincinnati, Ohio, and Saucon Valley Country Club in Bethlehem, Pa. He returned to Bonita Bay Club as head golf professional in 2000. Oyler attended Virginia Tech on a golf scholarship and holds a master's degree in business administration from California Coast University. He has been a Professional Golf Association member since 1994 and has volunteered with Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southwest Florida since 2003.

Hamberg

Naples office, has been appointed to the executive board for the Parkinson Association of Southwest Florida, Inc. The Parkinson Association of Southwest Florida, Inc. was established in 1997 to provide support for Parkinson's disease patients within Collier and southern Lee counties. Hamberg has more than 15 years experience in the banking industry and is an active volunteer with the Education Foundation of Collier County and also supports the United Way, March of Dimes, Heart Walk of Naples and American Cancer Society.

Kiraly

Myers. Kiraly, who has 22 years of on-site sales experience, including 18 years in Southwest Florida, has sold more than 1,000 homes in his career and has consistently been recognized as a top sales producer. He is a licensed Florida real estate broker and has received designation as a Certified Site Professional.

Royal Shell Preferred Properties has hired Susan Rosica as its newest associate. Rosica has 13 successful years of experience serving her real estate clients on Sanibel and Captiva Islands and in the south Fort Myers market. Rosica moved to Southwest Florida from the Jersey Shore with her husband Tom in 1995 after a career as the vice president of operations and personnel for two community banks on Long Beach Island and in Ocean City. In addition, her work with a local tax collector's office and the Columbus Housing Partnership, a non-profit organization that provides financial assistance and education of the home buying process to low-income buyers, provided her with a strong foundation for her real estate career.

Rosica

Public Relations

Wilson

Janet Wilson has joined Briggs & Rogers, LLC as public relations assistant. She is responsible for assisting with media relations and account management. Briggs & Rogers is a full-service public relations and marketing firm based in Fort Myers. Wilson brings 18 years of television newsroom experience, 11 of them with local CBS affiliate WINK-TV, where she served as assistant to the news director and assignment editor. Wilson previously worked in Washington, D.C. as the assignment editor for WJLA, an ABC affiliate. Previous to that she was with Waterman Broadcasting in Fort Myers.

Banking

Southwest Capital Bank has added Daniel J. Lauria to the staff as residential loan officer and Sherri L. Allender as teller in the Riverwalk office. Lauria has 21 years experience in the mortgage lending business and is a licensed mortgage broker in the state of Florida. He served on the Board of Education in Islip, New York for six years in the elected office. Allender has more than eight years experience as a teller.

Minnick

Tenney

Fifth Third Bank announced the appointments of Debbie Minnick to vice president, private banking and John Tenney as assistant vice president, financial center manager for the bank's Strand location at 5636 Tavilla Circle, Naples. Minnick previously served as assistant vice president and senior financial specialist for several local financial institutions and advisory firms. She has a master of business administration degree from the University of Colorado (Boulder), a bachelor of science degree in finance from Indiana University's Kelley School of Business and has the Series 7 and 66 designations, along with Florida insurance, life, health and variable annuity licenses. Tenney's responsibilities include managing the daily operations of the financial center. He joined Fifth Third Bank in 2004, most recently at the Greentree Financial Center in Naples. He is a graduate of Western Michigan University's Haworth School of Business.

Dianne Hamberg, vice president and branch manager of Colonial Bank's North

Law

Cohen & Grigsby, P.C. Director John E. Lynchski was recently re-elected to serve on the Florida Assisted Living Association board of directors. The Florida Assisted Living Association is the largest state association representing assisted living facilities. Lynchski is based in the Cohen & Grigsby Bonita Springs office. His practice includes a focus on management labor relations law for healthcare facilities.

Lynchski

Medicine

Dr. Timothy E. Underhill was named Optometrist of the Decade at the Florida Optometric Association's recent convention. A recipient of Optometrist of the Year in 2005, Underhill, a Fort Myers native, attended the University of Georgia and upon graduation entered Southern College of Optometry, where he received his doctor of optometry degree. His dedication to community service includes membership in the Rotary Club of Fort Myers South, Edison Pageant of Light and St. Michael's Christian Education Board. Underhill is past president of the Florida Optometric Association and was recently appointed to the Florida Board of Optometry by Gov. Charlie Christ. Currently, he is in partnership with Dr. Robert LeSage and together they manage the optometric practice Doctors Eyecare Centers

Underhill

Culture

Cox

Joe Cox, executive director of the Children's Museum of Naples, was among an elite group of 29 museum leaders from across the U.S., England, Ireland, Netherlands, Canada, Australia and China who attended the Getty Leadership Institute's renowned Museum Leadership Institute, held at the Getty Center in Los Angeles this summer. Now in its 30th year, MLI continues to be the foremost professional development program for senior executives. With a Community Foundation of Collier County grant that partially funded the tuition fee, Cox was able to represent the Children's Museum of Naples in this year's class that hosted a wide range of senior executives from the Smithsonian American Art Museum, to Canada's Science and Technology Museum in Ottawa, and The British Museum in London. Participants included leaders from the Contemporary Art Center of Virginia, Toledo Museum of Art, Institute of Contemporary Art Boston, Hong Kong Museum of Art, National Museum of Australia and Netherlands Open Air Museum. ■

Land Planning

Goguen

The Urban Land Institute Southwest Florida District Council announced that Brian L. Goguen, vice president of real estate for the Barron Collier Companies, has been elected to serve as chairman for the 2008-09 year. Goguen has extensive industry experience and is actively involved in real estate planning and land development. He is a member of the ULI National Residential Neighborhood Development Council. In addition to his ULI involvement, Goguen also currently serves as the chairman-elect of the Economic Development Council of Collier County. Goguen received an Executive MBA from Florida Gulf Coast University and an undergraduate degree in management from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. He is a graduate of the Leadership Collier Program and the Leader-

Quality • Experience • Integrity

CC TURNER

Developers & Contractors of Premier Properties

CONSTRUCTION MANAGERS
GENERAL CONTRACTORS

239-432-2860 • 6540 Corporate Park Circle, Fort Myers, FL 33966 • CGC1509627