Earth Day 2009 features theme of family/fitness

In partnership with Tarpon Bay Explorers and “Ding” Darling Wildlife Society-Friends of the Refuge, J.N. “Ding” Darling National Wildlife Refuge will host Earth Day 2009 on Saturday, April 1, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. The theme is “Reconnect: Earth, Family & Fitness.” Free activities will include giveaways to the first 200 kids, bike use (on a first come basis), bike tours, family yoga, wildlife programs, kayak rental and tour discounts, nature crafts, and fresh-brewed shade-grown coffee. DDWS is a non-profit, friends-of-the-refuge organization that supports the Education Center, “Ding” Darling Days, and other educational programs at the refuge. To join DDWS and become a friend to the refuge, stop in at the Refuge Education Center, call 472-1100, ext. 233, or visit www.dingdarlingsociety.org. Spring Home and Garden Show focuses on what’s new for homes

Regardless of whether you are a part-time or full-time Floridian, you’ll find something to pique your interest at the third annual Fort Myers Spring Home & Garden Show. The event takes place Saturday and Sunday, March 28 and 29, at the Harborside Event Center in downtown Fort Myers. Admission is $4 for adults and free for those under 18. Parking is free. Presented by The News-Press, the show gathers exhibitors from Southwest Florida and beyond, sharing their expertise, products and services with the public. The Home & Garden Show allows members of the public to experience new trends in home design, see and touch the newest products on the market and learn how to use them. In addition, thousands of dollars worth of prizes in hourly drawings will be given away to Home and Garden Show attendees. The Fort Myers Spring Home & Garden Show showcases home-improvement products and services including furniture and accessories, as well as products to redo and/or maintain everything from the floor to the roof, patio to pool and deck to dock. More than 150 businesses will participate in the show, presenting their products and services — at special show prices — to the buying public. More than 12,000 local consumers are expected to attend the two-day event. The show is sponsored by Comcast, WINK News and Expo Marketing. For more information, contact Expo Marketing at 466-6300, ext. 17, or visit www.ExpoTradeShows.net. ■
