

Informational meetings focus on life at Shell Point

Residents of Southwest Florida who would like to learn about resort-style retirement options and lifecare are invited to attend one of several informational meetings at Shell Point Retirement Community. One of Shell Point's experienced retirement counselors will explain the numerous benefits received when becoming a resident at Shell Point.

These meetings will be held three times a week in the Welcome Center at Shell Point, which is located on the Island. The dates and times are as follows:

- ▶ Tuesdays at 9 a.m. on July 14, 21 and 28
- ▶ Wednesdays at 9 a.m. on July 8, 15, 22 and 29
- ▶ Thursdays at 10 a.m. on July 9, 16, 23 and 30

A brief presentation will be given on the benefits of lifecare at Shell Point during the casually-structured meeting, where guests will learn about the numerous retirement options available at Shell Point. Included in the visit is a tour of the Island community, model units in the Woodlands and Eagles Preserve, as well as the many amenities that are available to residents at Shell Point.

Admission to these informative sessions is free; however, seating is limited, so reservations are required and may be made by calling 466-1131 or 1-800-780-1131.

Shell Point Retirement Community is a not-for-profit continuing care retirement community located in Fort Myers off Summerlin Road.
